

Central Europe Energy Partners (CEEP) is currently looking for a professional who will join its team in Brussels at the position of EU Policy Advisor

Skills and experience required:

- Good understanding of EU energy and climate policy
- Knowledge or interest with Central European region
- At least three years of relevant experience, preferably in energy sector, at the EU institutions, international organisation, think tank or academic institution
- Degree in economy, international relations, European studies, law or other relevant discipline
- Fluency in English and at least one language from the Central European region
- Good analytical and organisational skills, able to pay attention to detail
- Ability to take initiative and solve problems
- Ability to work effectively both independently and as a part of a team
- Be authorized to live and work in Belgium

Your main tasks will be:

- Actively contribute to CEEP's policy and analytical work on energy and climate topics, including drafting and writing position papers, policy briefs, articles and other publications
- Monitor and analyse energy and climate policy development on the EU and Central European level
- Maintain liaison with EU institutions and relevant stakeholders
- Support the communication work i.e. in organising events, preparing publications

What we offer:

- Six months contract, with the aim of extending beyond this period
- A competitive salary package dependent on the work experience
- Opportunities for professional development and networking
- A professional and pleasant working atmosphere within a small team
- Centrally located office near the Schuman roundabout

How to apply:

Please send your application (CV and cover letter) to office@ceep.be

(Subject line: "Application for the position of EU Policy advisor")

The deadline for application is 31st of May 2021

Please note that only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

By sending us your application, you consent to the processing of your personal data indicated in your application documents and related correspondence. Your application is treated strictly confidentially and in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Who we are:

Central Europe Energy Partners (CEEP) is a Brussels-based international non-profit association established in 2010. CEEP supports cooperation among energy companies from Central Europe and promotes the ideas of just transition and energy security. CEEP is committed to the EU climate objectives and plays an active role in the EU debate about energy and climate policies. For more information visit our website: www.ceep.be